

Charlie

The most exciting thing was here.
My family and I were filled with cheer.
Except for my mom who thought it was wrong
To bring a puppy along

He came here asleep and made not a peep.
He was the cutest thing.
All he needed was a little
Bling-bling.

He was my sister's dog but acted like a hog
When my sister wasn't around.
My mom almost sent him to the pound.

One very sad day we gave Charlie away.
Forever he'd stay in my heart.
I'll love him forever although we're apart.

We would still see him
Because he comes with Kelly and Tim.
I love Charlie so much
Yet I miss his loving touch.
I will always want to hold him.
