

Rain

by Shelby Dirkschneider, 5 grade
Cornerstone Christian Academy

After the rain has come and gone, the smell of the air is as beautiful as fresh flowers.
The rain sounds like mad feet coming in the house,
or the light sound of little bugs crawling around.
It's as cool as the breeze that comes through the windy trees.
It comes up out of the ground as it is about to start its cycle again.