

The Sun

by Jack Lamb, 5th grade Cornerstone Christian Academy

A ball of burning gas
A sphere of firing flames
The low rumbling of a washing machine
The smell of burning ashes
The taste is unknown, but it would make a hot chili pepper look pale.
It does not move, but it feeds on anything that is sucked into its unforgiving gravity.
That is the sun.