8	October 1-3	Walker	30,31,32

Convention Details

1. When you arrive go straight to the General Assembly area and look for other Cornerstone folks. Do not attempt to check in at the front because Tom will have already picked up our entire group's packets. If you are the first car to arrive, Tom will be at his booth (near the assembly area).

2. Brian has a complete list of the special seminars that require advance payment. Since the school spent extra convention funds to secure these reservations for you, please honor the schedule and don't succumb to the temptation to show up at seminars different from those you pre-registered for.

3. You are on your own for all meals. Because of the number of people taking the Bible CEU class (good for you!), we cannot have a dinner together Thursday evening (though many of you will go out together before or afterwards). We are not sure which special seminars may include the "grab and go" lunches. Pay attention at your seminars and you will know if you have a lunch included. Otherwise, you're on your own.

4. Please keep a record of all seminars you attended and be prepared to:
(1) give a brief report of your best highlight at the Monday faculty meeting on October 8;
(2) turn in a list of all your seminars for CEU credit at the faculty meeting on October 8.

And yet again...

Thanks to everyone for their superior work and efforts during the site visit week!
Glory to God in the Highest!
